Regional Information

Deep in the heart of the Texas Hill Country rests beautiful New Braunfels, TX. Founded in 1845 by German settlers, New Braunfels is overflowing with old world heritage and small town Texas charm. From beautiful, spring fed rivers, to Texas' oldest bakery, the activities and sights are endless.

Accolades

- New Braunfels ranked #9 out of the Texas Top 40 summer destinations by Travel Magazine.

Communities like New Braunfels are unique. Refined by old-world German heritage and complemented by an affordable and unmatched quality of life, it's no wonder the population has grown 58% in the last decade. New Braunfels also boasts exceptional transportation networks, multiple universities within a 30-minute drive, and a pro-business leadership, tax and regulatory environment.

Companies such as Ashley Furniture, HD Supply, Vanguard Health Systems and Leisure Pools have already realized the advantages of a growing, well-trained, 450,000 person strong workforce. These recent expansions and relocations have further strengthened our industry bases in manufacturing, healthcare, logistics and distribution, and aviation businesses. Plus, with over 300 days of sunshine a year and 500+ acres of outdoor water recreation, New Braunfels is the premier destination for work - or play - year round.

Education

Comal County and the City of New Braunfels each have a school district. New Braunfels ISD (NBISD) is primarily within the city limits, Comal ISD (CISD), which spans 589 miles of central Texas, includes parts of five central Texas counties: Comal, Bexar, Hays, Kendall and Guadalupe.

CISD includes 18 elementary schools, five middle schools and three high schools and is rated as a Recognized school district by the Texas Education Agency. NBISD includes 14 total schools and is rated as an Academically Acceptable school district by the TEA.

To keep pace with the explosive population growth in the area, both CISD and NBISD have passed bonds to build and expand schools, upgrade technology and purchase land for future schools. In 2005, CISD voters passed a $189 million bond issue followed by another bond in 2008 for $213 million to build three new elementary schools and expand the current middle and high schools. NBISD voters passed a $42 million bond package in May 2006 to address current and projected student enrollment. For more information about CISD, visit www.comalisd.org, and for NBISD, visit www.newbraunfels.txed.net

Start-up training programs for industry are available through area community colleges working in cooperation with the State Office of Economic Development and Tourism and the local WorkSource Career Center. Both school districts offer comprehensive adult education programs.

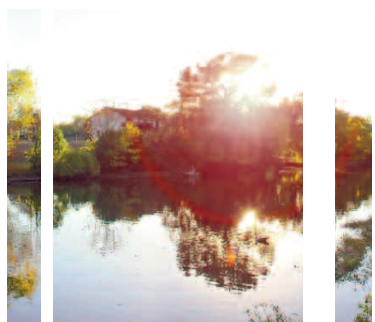

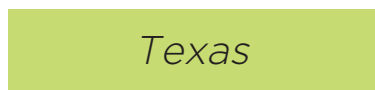

Private and parochial schools play an important role in the diverse educational opportunities in New Braunfels. The oldest is St. Peter & Paul Catholic School which opened in 1849 by Father Menzel. St. Peter & Paul Catholic School provides an excellent Catholic education and inspires active learning so that all students will achieve and is for students K-8. In addition, Cross Lutheran and the New Braunfels Christian Academy provide strong Christian education programs that serve students in grades K-8 and K-12 respectively.
